High Above Old Concho's Waters ALMA MATER

High above Old Concho's waters
Stands our High School dear,
Where as friends and pals we've labored
In the by-gone years.

May she be the largest, grandest,
Best in all the world,
And be loved and cherished ever
By each boy and girl.

When we're old and separated,
Let us not forget
To be true to our High School
That we honor yet.

Keep our colors ever flowing,
Strive with all your might
To be true to our old High School
'Neath maroon and white.

Education is a community investment that brings a substantial dollar-and-cents return as well as a profit in the form of a better philosophy in life for those who take advantage of its opportunities.

We should strive together in weaving the many things that God has given our community into a unified school system that will exemplify our educational aims and justify our efforts.

To the personnel of school board, the faculty members, the student body, parents and friends of our school, I sincerely extend words of appreciation for your kindness and cooperation. Let us all keep on being friends in fact, in spirit, and in purpose and be ever mindful that one step backwards means two hard steps to push forward again.

Sincerely yours,

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Your Parent-Teacher Association is the connecting link which brings into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child. There must be unity between parent and teacher, school and home. These must be inseparable, if child welfare is to be the supreme object of the organization. This poem, "Dream for Unity", gives us an ideal for unity which can come true;

I dreamed I stood in a studio
And watched two sculptors there,
The clay they used was a young child's mind,
And they fashioned it with care.
One was a teacher; the tools he used
Were books, music and art;
One, a parent who worked with a guiding
Hand and a gentle, loving heart.
Day after day the teacher toiled,
With touch that was deft and sure,
While the parent labored by his side
And polished and smoothed it o'er.
And when at last their task was done,
They were proud of what they had wrought
For the things they had molded into the child
Could neither be sold nor bought
And each agreed they would have failed
If he had worked alone
For behind the teacher stood the school,
And behind the parent, the home.

Sincerely,

Lois Currie

Wa!

"Darlingest" Roberts - (or should I say <sup>Pindslip</sup> ~~Roberts?~~)

I think you are just swell - you can always make someone laugh & have the happiest disposition of anyone
I know.

I hope it doesn't become a habit to slap blisters on your leg!

I always enjoy being with you cause you always have fun. As Donis said - Some things you can tell some people & some you can't

I hope you always have the best of luck all your life -

Love -
Sean

Dearest Roberts,

Gosh. I don't know how to say this 'cause --- well - gosh I just don't.

When I think of some of the things we have "debated over" and talked about - golly--- there are some things you talk over with "some" people and some things you don't (such as ----- & _____)

I won't have to write pages and pages 'cause you already know how I feel about you.

Remember me always, as you say, as one of your "bestest friends" 'cause

I love ya,
Doris

Dear Lois,

I guess I have put this off as long as possible And I can hardly wait to see the shocked look on your face when I hand you this.

I don't dare recall our past experiences because there, well if you must know their embarrassing.

And I don't want to say anything about your boy friend cause you can't make up your mind. But I do want you know I couldn't possibly live without ya. I guess people would st beat me to death if you weren't here to help me. And your just wonderful person to keep my secrets.

would go on for pages but I just want you to know I think you a small girl love ya voddie
